I don't think so. They called it a Dell printer. I can have them deliver it upstairs and sort it out when it gets there.

Subject: Dell Printer ?

Good morning,

I had a phone message from FedEx regarding delivery of a Dell Printer to Public Health at 181 Stockbridge Rd. They needed additional address info. I can give them the correct address, but is anyone expecting this printer? I want to send them to the correct floor.

Thanks,
-Eric
